

Layoff Analysis Report

Top 10 companies in total layoffs

We note that Amazon leading at 18,150, followed by Google 12,000 and Meta 11,000. Companies like Salesforce, Philips, and Microsoft report around 10,000 layoffs each, while Booking.com has the least at 4,601. This visualization underscores major workforce reductions, particularly in the tech industry.

Companies laid off all their employees 116

Top 5 companies that raised the most money and fired all of their employees

From the chart we note that Britishvolt leads with the highest amount of money raised, followed by Quibi, Deliveroo Australia, Katerra, and BlockFi. This visualization underscores significant financial investments in companies that ultimately failed to sustain their workforce.

Google has the most total layoffs in one year with 12,000 employees in 2023

The first layoff date was in 2020-03-11 and The last layoff date was in 2023-03-06

Total layoffs over time

Layoffs were around 100,000 in 2020 due to the pandemic, decreased below 100,000 in 2021 as the economy recovered, peaked at 250,000 in 2022 amid economic challenges, and dropped to 150,000 in 2023, signaling stabilization. The data highlights the impact of external factors like COVID-19 on job markets and employment trends.

Top 5 stages in layoffs

Post-IPO companies experienced the highest number of layoffs with 220,846, followed by Unknown stages with 56,078, Series C with 31,109, Acquired with 30,460, and Series D with 27,485. This chart highlights that companies in the Post-IPO stage face significantly more layoffs compared to other stages.

